INTERLUDE

The Softness of My Mother's Hands ..... John Alexander
Esther Teh, soloist

When I was very small, just a stranger to the world, I prayed God would hold me safely, for around me danger swirled. I'd stumble and I'd fall, lose direction, suffer pain. But He'd always hear my prayers, I knew, for I'd reach home again. If I live to be one-hundred, sail to countless far off lands, I shall never forget how my prayers were met in the softness of my mother's hands. All my troubles healed, all my hopes are sealed, cares and worries sent to far off lands. Love and peace fulfilled, restless spirits stilled, by the softness of my mother's hands. A little touch would do, nothing more than just a pat. Brush a wayward tear from off my cheek. She'd smile and that was that. But now the world has changed, and so often skies are gray. But within my heart her touch will live to brighten every day.

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic [universal] church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

THE MINISTRY OF MUSIC

Hymns My Mother Taught Me ..... Anton Dvorak; arr. Baik
C.J. Baik, soloist

Hymns my mother taught me in the days long vanished; seldom from her eyelids were the teardrops banished. Now I teach my children all the glorious praises; oft the tears are flowing, oft they flow from my soul to eternity. Once again I see your face and smile; I hear your voice as I kneel to pray. The little prayer you taught me to say long ago when I was a child, now I teach my children each little glorious measure; oft the tears are flowing, oft they flow to my memory's treasure.

An Expression of Gratitude ..... David Schwoebel
Dr. John L. Wilson, director

I thank my God in all my remembrance of you; always with joy in every prayer for you. I thank my God for your fellowship in the gospel from the very first day until now; I thank my God for you. And I am sure that He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Christ. And this I pray that your love may abound more and more; abound in knowledge, in judgment, that you may approve what is excellent to the glory of God; that you may be pure and blameless, filled with the fruits of righteousness which comes through Christ Jesus.
